Buenos Aires Argentina

5-8 September 2018

Welcome Message from FDI president

In 2018 FDI World Dental Federation returns to Buenos Aires, Argentina, to hold its World Dental Congress (WDC). The first time was in 1987. The event will be hosted by the Argentina Dental Association, La Confederación Odontológica de la República Argentina. We are very excited to return to South America and view the 2018 congress as a huge opportunity to strengthen our strategic presence and activities in the region.

The 8th largest country by surface area, with a population of nearly 44 million, Argentina has recently returned in force to the world stage, hosting the 2017 World Economic Forum on Latin America and the 12th World Trade Organization Ministerial Conference. In 2018, it is set to assume the presidency of the G20, the international forum that brings together the world's 20 leading industrialized and emerging economies.

According to 2014 World Health Organization figures, Argentina's total health spending per capita is USD 1,137, some 4.8% of p.c. GDP. In addition, the 2017 Euromonitor International Report 'Oral Care in Argentina' notes that the country's recovering economy and an increasing choice of products will boost demand for sophisticated dental appliances.

The Report further points out that "oral hygiene is very important to Argentinians and the recovery of wages in real terms and the increasing variety of products will boost sales of sophisticated oral care goods, in addition to traditional products". Buenos Aires is therefore an exciting prospect for exhibitors to display their equipment, products and services in a rapidly growing market.

FDI's World Dental Congress is one of the world's oldest international events under the name of one of the world's oldest medical-sector organizations. It is the 'must-attend' international meeting point for sharing policy, information and ideas on dentistry and oral health. It is also a highly reputable source of continuing education allowing dentists and other oral health practitioners to stay abreast of the latest technology and practices. It regularly offering courses by speakers from over 30 countries. Other congress features include the World Oral Health Forum, which provides an opportunity to debate hot topics in oral health and related issues.

The World Dental Exhibition has been an integral part of the WDC ever since 1929, when an Oral Health Exhibition first took place in association with the 23rd FDI Annual Session in Utrecht (Netherlands). The dental profession and the dental industry are essential partners in delivering oral health to populations around the world. Their symbiotic relationship is even more important today as new materials and technology are developed rapidly to accommodate the latest treatment philosophies.

The city of Buenos Aires, capital of Argentina with a population in excess of 15 million, is a cultural centre, the birthplace of tango and home to world-class theatre and opera - the Teatro Colón is considered one of the top five opera houses in the world - fine restaurants, top-notch architecture as well as boasting a vibrant nightlife. And, of course, I must mention Argentina's two national passions. Football: the national team was the best in Latin America in 2017! And polo, which reflects Argentina's tradition of horse keeping and horse riding on the vast pampas.

We look forward to seeing you in Buenos Aires, 5-8 September 2018, for the FDI World Dental Congress and international dental exhibition.

Dr Patrick Hescot
President of FDI World
Dental Federation

Welcome Message from CORA president

It is my great pleasure to announce and invite you to the World Dental Congress 2018 in Buenos Aires, 5-8 September 2018. WDC is back in Buenos Aires after 35 years and we are very excited to meet with colleagues from all over the world and have the opportunity to witness the pinnacle of dental industry.

Argentina is a constantly changing and developing country. We understand that in the past it was not easy to do international business in Argentina, however in the last couple of years, the country has become business-friendly and offers thriving opportunities to international businesses. Most of the problems with customs and registering international health products in the country has been resolved. We believe this is the right time and opportunity for international manufacturers to showcase their products and make dealership agreements to have a long and prosperous business presence in Argentina.

Argentina is home to 50.000 dentists, mostly occupied in private clinics. CORA is the roof organization of all dentists in Argentina, striving to increase the standards of our profession, as well as providing the newest and most efficient solutions for our patients.

The level of oral health and dentistry in Argentina increases daily and we believe the next step to quality can only be achieved by following and “using” the latest technologies in our profession, providing the state-of-the-art treatments for our patients.

We invite to you to take place in the WDC as a sponsor or exhibitor and reach over 15 thousand dentists, mostly from South America.

Our PCO will offer a B2B system where you can meet local dealerships and make tangible connections to sell your products in Argentina, and maybe all over South America.

Dr. Guillermo Rivero
President of CORA
La Confederación
Odontológica de la
República Argentina

There are 48.424 active dentists in Argentina. 30 annual dental congress and events in Argentina receive an average of 1.000 participants which means over 50% of the dentists in Argentina actively attend congresses and educational programs.
